IN REMEMBRANCE OF STROM THURMOND

Mr. DEWINE. Mr. President, I would like to take a moment this evening to pay tribute to our dear friend and former colleague, Strom Thurmond, a man who gave of himself personally to his constituents and to his colleagues here in the Senate.

All of us will always remember Strom. We will remember him seated right in front of the Presiding Officer at his desk. We will remember him for his smile. We will remember him for his greeting. Frankly, I don’t think any of us will ever walk into this Chamber again without almost seeing him down there at his desk.

He was a man who gave so much of himself to his constituents. We will remember him for the way he treated each one of us, the way he treated his constituents, and the individual attention he gave to us and his constituents.

I saw the way he personally dealt with his constituents. I also saw the personal attention he paid to me and the personal interest he took in my family. In particular, I am grateful to him for the hospitality and attention he showed to my son Brian, who just recently graduated from his beloved Clemson University.

A few years ago, when I told Strom that my son Brian was going to Clemson, I remember the big smile on his face. Of course, I knew he was a graduate of Clemson. I could tell how delighted and eager he was to share stories about his experience at Clemson. And I remember a lot of those stories.

Of course, the first thing he told me was: “You know, I went to Clemson”—which, of course, I did know. And I then asked him: “Strom, what year did you graduate from Clemson?” He said: “1923.” I said: “Strom, that was the year my dad was born”—which it was.

During the 4 years that Brian was at Clemson, almost every time I saw Strom on the floor, Strom would say: “How’s your boy? How is that boy of yours doing down at Clemson? Does he like it?” Of course, I told him he did, which Brian certainly did.

After Brian graduated, Strom invited Brian and myself up to his office. Strom showed him all the pictures on the wall. Strom invited him over and
